Subject: RE: [External] Docket No. 2019-390-E - Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc.'s Letter to Hearing Officer

Dear Parties of Record:

Under 10 S.C. Code Ann. Reg. 103-829(A), the motion for extension of DESC's deadline to file Direct Testimony was filed on February 5, 2020. A party can respond to the motion by filing a response (if any) within 10 days of service. However, these times can be modified. Is there any objection to DESC's Motion for an additional five (5) days to file their direct testimony or to ruling on that procedural motion prior to February 15th?

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Your response is appreciated (if possible) no later tomorrow morning (February 13th) at 12:00 p.m. if not before.

Jo Anne

Regulation 103-829 Motions.

A. Motions, except those made during hearings, will be reduced to writing and filed with the Chief Clerk at least ten (10) days prior to the commencement of a hearing. Responses to such motions are due within ten days after service of said motions. Replies to responses to motions shall be filed with the Commission within five days of service of the response. These times may be modified by order of the Commission or its designee for good cause. Written motions to quash a subpoena will be made pursuant to R. 103-832.

B. The Commission, in its discretion and upon due notice to all parties of record, may entertain oral argument and response on prefiled motions in advance of the scheduled hearing in the proceeding to which the motions pertain. Otherwise, such argument and response shall be made at the commencement of the hearing. The presiding officer may make a ruling upon such motion at the completion of oral argument, at the conclusion of the hearing, or in the written order making disposition of the subject matter of the proceeding.
